EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Joseph Gamberdell on 11/24/2006 at which time I heard his message for authorization to combine claims 13 and 14.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Claim 14 has been cancelled.

Claim 13 has been amended to the following:

13. (Currently Amended) An electronic device comprising a data communication device mounted into a general purpose expansion mount, the data communication device including:

a first memory;

the general purpose expansion mount for a second ordinary expansion memory;

circuitry that operates during an LPRF-data transmission to prevent another process from changing the first and second memories;

a controller connectable to a general purpose interface of the expansion mount, for controlling the operation of the data communication device;

Art Unit: 2611

a short-range radio frequency wireless data communication unit and a short range radio frequency antenna for data communication; and at least a portion of the second memory for storing a communicated data, wherein a wireless device communicating with the electronic device operates as the second ordinary expansion memory from the viewpoint of the electronic device.

Remarks:

Claim 13 was argued in applicant's response to be a dependent claim.
